

7 Review and practice

1 Find the missing word in each sentence.

If I eat any more, I be sick.

If I eat any more, I'll be sick.

- We'll be late we don't leave now.
We'll be late if we don't leave now.
- If it rains, we not play tennis this afternoon.
If it rains, we won't play tennis this afternoon.
- You buy me a newspaper if you go shopping later?
Will you buy me a newspaper if you go shopping later?
- If I don't see Holly today, I phone her.
If I don't see Holly today, I will phone her.
- You put your hand on the cooker, you'll burn yourself.
If you put your hand on the cooker, you'll burn yourself.
- I won't meet you at the cinema I don't finish my work.
I won't meet you at the cinema if I don't finish my work.
- If you lend me five pounds, I pay you back tomorrow.
If you lend me five pounds, I will pay you back tomorrow.
- If you get home before me, you make the dinner?
If you get home before me, you will make the dinner.

2 Write complete First Conditional sentences using the prompts.

she/eat all that cake/be sick

If she eats all that cake, she'll be sick.

- they/offer me the job/take it
If they offer me the job, I will take it.
- I/have a party/pass my exam
If I pass exam, I will have a party.
- you/not use sun cream/get burnt
If you don't use sun cream, you will get burnt.
- I/be late for work/not get up now
I will be late for work if I don't get up now.
- we/not invite her/she be upset
If we don't invite her, she will be upset.
- I/see Jon/not tell him about the party
If I see Jon, I will not tell him about the party.
- you/not have any money left/buy those jeans
You won't have any money left if you buy those jeans.
- we/not leave now/be late
If won't leave now, we will be late.

3 Choose the correct words in italics.

I really want passing to pass my driving test.

- I enjoy going to go to the cinema.
- I promise not telling not to tell anyone.
- He offered washing to wash the dishes.
- I considered doing to do a computer course.
- She's decided going to go running every day.
- He seems liking to like living with his parents.
- Have you finished using to use the computer?
- He avoided talking to talk to girls as much as possible.

4 Complete the sentences with the gerund or infinitive (with to) form of the verbs in brackets.

We've decided to eat (eat) at home this evening.

- I'm considering going (go) to Thailand for my next holiday.
- I can't afford to go (go) on holiday this year.
- Gabriela offered to help (help) me with my homework.
- We'll leave at 10 a.m. to avoid arriving (arrive) in the dark.
- I want to do (do) a lot of work this weekend.
- Let me know when you've finished talking (talk) on the phone.

5 Find the mistakes in four of the sentences and correct them.

I don't remember ~~to see~~ seeing him here before.

- I can't stop ~~to think~~ thinking about that horror film I saw last night.
- If you want to talk to her, try ~~phoning~~ you will her.
- Please, remember ~~bringing~~ to even an umbrella tomorrow.
- She talked all ~~evening~~ to even and didn't stop listening to me at all.
- Do you remember walking along here when we were children?
- Could you stop to shout at me, please?

6 Complete the sentences with the words from the box. There are two extra words.

ambitious chatty high temperature feel sick muscular reliable reserved sensitive skinny sore throat

My brother is always talking. He's so chatty.

- I think she's too thin. She's very ~~skinnv~~ skinny now.
- I've got a terrible sore throat and I've nearly lost my voice.
- You can always trust Mick. He's very reliable.
- James goes to the gym almost every day. He's getting very muscular.
- She's quite reserved at first and doesn't say much.
- I was in bed with a really high temperature yesterday. It was nearly 40°C.
- My sister is very ambitious. She wants to be the Director in two years.