

C1.S3 what is company?

1. Origin of the company

From the beginning, people tried to create wealth by doing business according to their own abilities. Do business in a different way. At the same time, as technology begins to grow and become more advanced.

Later, two British men made individual shoes, and then they began to spread the word, and the new ideas spread throughout the continent. Which, of course, made the video an overnight sensation.

2. A company is a place where employees and other managers work according to their respective roles.

3. There are four a bout company.

1. A company is incorporated by individuals
2. who wish to limit their personal liability
3. who own the company per their individual share
4. who then have a right in decision-marking